

Free Guided Tours in Asakusa

The huge lantern at Kaminarimon Gate in Sensoji Temple

The water basin for purification in Sensoji Temple

Asakusa, one of the most traditional and lively neighborhoods in Tokyo, is waiting for your visit.

See Sensoji Temple, well known for its huge red lantern;

Asakusa Shrine, famous for its Sanja Festival;

Nakamise, the best place for your souvenir shopping, and more!

Walking around with a knowledgeable guide will be an unforgettable memory.

Days

Monday, Tuesday, Thursday,
Saturday or Sunday

Starting times

10:30 a.m. or 1:15 p.m.

Time required

About 90 minutes

After the tour

Asakusa Culture Tourist Information Center (View from the top floor)

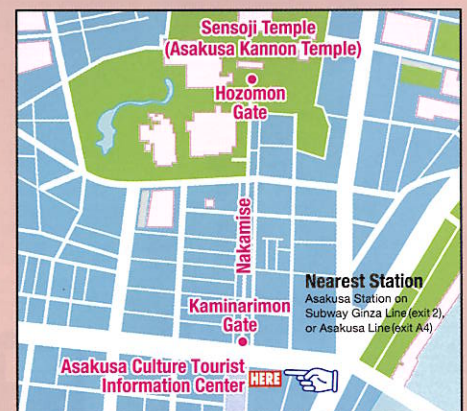

This tourist information center is located in front of Kaminarimon Gate. There are convenient services such as free Wi-Fi, currency exchange, a nursing room, wheelchair rental, etc. From the viewing deck and the cafe on the 8th floor, you can look across Asakusa town and take nice pictures with Tokyo Skytree in the background.

Meeting Point

To participate in a tour, please come to the TOKYO SGG CLUB counter on the first floor of Asakusa Culture Tourist Information Center, located across from the well-known Kaminarimon Gate of Sensoji Temple, as indicated on the map below. Please arrive 10 minutes before either scheduled starting time.

Asakusa Culture Tourist Information Center

Important Notice

- The number of participants may be limited on a first-come-first-served basis.
- The tour may be cancelled without prior notice.